This service will be live-streamed and available to view on our YouTube channel.

You can join in live at 1030 or catch up later in the day or week.

Please use the sheet in conjunction with the service booklet you have been given.

Please use this sheet as an aid to worship in church and take it with you when you leave.

A hymn sheet can be found on page 4

THE COLLECT

Almighty God, you have created the heavens and the earth and made us in your own image: teach us to discern your hand in all your works and your likeness in all your children; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit reigns supreme over all things, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

Genesis 2.4b - 9, 15-25

A reading from the Book of Genesis

In the day that the Lord God made the earth and the heavens, when no plant of the field was yet in the earth and no herb of the field had yet sprung up for the Lord God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was no one to till the ground; but a stream would rise from the earth, and water the whole face of the ground then the Lord God formed man from the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and the man became a living being. And the Lord God planted a garden in Eden, in the east; and there he put the man whom he had formed. Out of the ground the Lord God made to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food, the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

The Lord God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to till it and keep it. And the Lord God commanded the man, 'You may freely eat of every tree of the garden; but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall die.' The Lord God said, 'It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper as his partner.' So out of the ground the Lord God formed every animal of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name. The man gave names to all cattle, and to the birds of the air, and to every animal of the field; but for the man there was not found a helper as his partner. So the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; then he took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. And the rib that the Lord God had taken from the man he made into a woman and brought her to the man. Then the man said, 'This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called Woman, for out of Man this one was taken.' Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and clings to his wife, and they become one flesh. And the man and his wife were both naked, and were not ashamed.

For the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING

Revelation 4

A reading from the Revelation to St. John the Divine

I looked, and there in heaven a door stood open! And the first voice, which I had heard speaking to me like a trumpet, said, 'Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after this.' At once I was in the spirit, and there in heaven stood a throne, with one seated on the throne! And the one seated there looks like jasper and cornelian, and around the throne is a rainbow that looks like an emerald. Around the throne are twenty-four thrones, and seated on the thrones are twenty-four elders, dressed in white robes, with golden crowns on their heads. Coming from the throne are flashes of lightning, and rumblings and peals of thunder, and in front of the throne burn seven flaming torches, which are the seven spirits of God; and in front of the throne there is something like a sea of glass, like crystal. Around the throne, and on each side of the throne, are four living creatures, full of eyes in front and behind: the first living creature like a lion, the second living creature like an ox, the third living creature with a face like a human face, and the fourth living creature like a flying eagle. And the four living creatures, each of them with six wings, are full of eyes all around and inside. Day and night without ceasing they sing, 'Holy, holy, holy, the Lord God the Almighty, who was and is and is to come.' And whenever the living creatures give glory and honour and thanks to the one who is seated on the throne, who lives for ever and ever, the twenty-four elders fall before the one who is seated on the throne and worship the one who lives for ever and ever; they cast their crowns before the throne, singing, 'You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honour and power, for you created all things, and by your will they existed and were created.'

For the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

Luke 8.22-25

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory to you, O Lord.

One day Jesus got into a boat with his disciples, and he said to them, 'Let us go across to the other side of the lake.' So they put out, and while they were sailing he fell asleep. A gale swept down on the lake, and the boat was filling with water, and they were in danger. They went to him and woke him up, shouting, 'Master, Master, we are perishing!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and the raging waves; they ceased, and there was a calm. He said to them, 'Where is your faith?' They were afraid and amazed, and said to one another, 'Who then is this, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?' .

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

God our creator, by your gift the tree of life was set at the heart of the earthly paradise, and the bread of life at the heart of your Church: may we who have been nourished at your table on earth be transformed by the glory of the Saviour's cross and enjoy the delights of eternity; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HYMN SHEET

FIRST HYMN

A&M 754

(Hannover)

- 1 O worship the King all-glorious above,
O gratefully sing his power and his love:
our shield and defender, the Ancient of Days, pavilioned in splendour and girded with praise.
- 2 O tell of his might and sing of his grace, whose robe is the light, whose canopy space;
his chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, and dark is his path on the wings of the storm.
- 3 Your bountiful care, what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light;
it streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
and sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.
- 4 Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
in you do we trust, nor find you to fail.
Your mercies, how tender, how firm to the end,
our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend!
- 5 O measureless might, ineffable love, while angels delight to hymn thee above, thy humbler creation, though feeble their lays,
with true adoration shall sing to thy praise!

Robert Grant (1779-1838) Based on Psalm 104

GRADUAL HYMN

A&M 541

(St Audrey)

- | | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Lord of beauty, thine the splendour shown in earth and sky and sea, burning sun and moonlight tender, hill and river, flower and tree;
lest we fail our praise to render touch our eyes that they may see. | 3. Lord of life, alone sustaining all below and all above, Lord of love, by whose ordaining sun and stars sublimely move:
in our earthly spirits reigning,
lift our hearts that we may love. |
| 2. Lord of wisdom, whom obeying mighty waters ebb and flow, while unhasting, undelaying, planets on their courses go:
in thy laws thyself displaying,
teach our minds thyself to know. | 4. Lord of beauty, bid us own thee,
Lord of truth, our footsteps guide,
till as Love our hearts enthrone thee,
and, with vision purified,
Lord of all, when all have known thee,
thou in all art glorified. |

Cyril Argentine Alington (1872-1955)

COMMUNION MOTET

Lord I trust thee—Handel

Sung by the Pershore Abbey Choir

COMMUNION HYMN

A&M 534

(Oasis)

1. As water to the thirsty, as beauty to the eyes,
as strength that follows weakness,
as truth instead of lies,
as song time and springtime and summertime to be,
so is my Lord, my living Lord,
so is my Lord to me.

2. Like calm in place of clamour, like peace that follows pain,
like meeting after parting,
like sunshine after rain, like moonlight and starlight and sunlight on the sea,
so is my Lord, my living Lord,
so is my Lord to me.

3. As sleep that follows fever, as gold instead of gray, as freedom after bondage,
as sunrise to the day,
as home to the trav'ler and all we long to see,
so is my Lord, my living Lord,
so is my Lord to me.

Timothy Dudley-Smith (b.1926)

FINAL HYMN

A&M 546

(How Great Thou Art)

1. O Lord, my God, when I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hands hath made,
I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder, thy pow'r throughout the universe displayed:

*Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee:
How great thou art! How great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee:
How great thou art! How great thou art!*

2. When through the woods and forest glades I wander, and hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees;
when I look down from lofty mountain grandeur and hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze:

3. And when I think that God, his Son not sparing, sent him to die, I scarce can take it in, that on the cross my burden gladly bearing he bled and died to take away my sin:

4. When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation and take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration and there proclaim, "My God, how great thou art!"

Stuart K. Hine (1899-1989)

KEITH PRITCHARD

We were all deeply saddened to hear the news that Keith died on 4 February. The Abbey community owes Keith a huge debt of gratitude for the many years he shared his financial expertise whilst serving on the finance team. His attention to detail helped ensure that our accounts were in the best possible shape. Keith always had a gentle way of pointing out mistakes! It is his gentleness, thoughtfulness and wonderful example of Christian living that we shall miss. Our thoughts and prayers are with Jean, Ann, Brenda and all the family. There will be a service of thanksgiving for Keith at 1200 on 7 March at Pershore Abbey. Claire

MINISTER CELEBRATIONS

FAREWELL TO REVD STEVE AND FAMILY: Chester Diocese has now formally announced that our Curate, Revd Steve Dunton, is to be the Vicar of the Parish of Timperley in Altringham from April this year. All our love, prayers and best wishes go with Steve and all his family.

Steve's last Sunday with us will be 3 April, where he will take the 0800 service and the 1030, which will be a Benefice Service at Pershore Abbey.

If you feel that you would like to contribute to a leaving gift for Steve to commemorate his time here within the Pershore Benefice, you can post cash, or a cheque made out to Pershore Abbey PCC, placed in an envelope marked S Dunton Gift through the office door, or alternatively contact the office for BACS details. We will present this gift at the 1030 Benefice Service on Steve's final Sunday.

Steve will be licensed and installed on Monday 28 March at 1900 in Timperley.

We are organising a coach to celebrate with Steve. It will leave the Abbey at 1530 and will return around 2330. We expect the fare to be around £15 per person and a sign-up sheet will be available in the Abbey from this Sunday. Our other churches will also be making arrangements for those who will join us.

Alternatively, email office@pershoreabbey.org.uk to book your seat.

It will be lovely if lots of us can be with Steve in this huge step! Thank you. Claire

VOLUNTEERING OPPORTUNITIES

PERSHORE ABBEY TREASURER URGENTLY REQUIRED

We are still urgently seeking a volunteer to take on the role of Abbey Treasurer. Ideally you will be a qualified accountant with an understanding of the charity sector. More information on the role and an application pack is available from office@pershoreabbey.org.uk or call 01386 552071. It is VITAL that we have someone in place to work with Helen Archer-Smith before she steps down at the APCM in May.

PERSHORE ABBEY SUNDAY COFFEES RETURN – HELP NEEDED!: It's wonderful to be serving refreshments once more, and to feel that Abbey life is getting back to normal. I am very grateful for the continued support of the volunteers in the Sunday Coffees team but we really do need more help. Would you be able to serve hot drinks and biscuits, or operate the dishwasher (tuition provided!), on one Sunday morning as part of a 4 to 6 week rota? Please contact Sara Speed (710776), or talk to any member of the team, for further information about this worthwhile ministry of fellowship.

ABBAY LINK DELIVERY DROP-OFF VOLUNTEER: Distributor required to deliver packs of the Abbey Link Magazine to our deliverers. This should take just over 2 hours four times a year, and you would need a car. Please contact Roger Piper via office@pershoreabbey.org.uk

ABBAY LINK DOORSTEP DELIVERY VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: We have had a few offers of help but still need volunteers to deliver the Abbey Link Magazine once every three months to the following streets:-

- Westcott Way (Phase 2)
- Jeacock Grove
- Skylark Drive
- Krier Fields
- Kingfisher Fields
- Woodpecker Fields

If you live on or near any of these areas and are thinking of volunteering, then please contact Roger Piper via office@pershoreabbey.org.uk

Christ and the Chocolaterie is an original, innovative and lively Lent course inspired by the film Chocolat, based on the bestselling novel by Joanne Harris, using the film as a starting point for exploring issues about God, the world.

Hilary Brand has designed five group sessions on the themes of giving, acceptance and change. Each includes excerpts from the film, group discussion questions, exercises and meditations.

It will be a Lent course with a decadent twist as we will be serving luxurious hot chocolate before each session! Each session begins at 1900 and will finish at 2030. The first session will begin at 1845 and will finish by 2100. Please invite friends and neighbours.

As we need to order the correct number of course books, please can you fill in the sheet at the back of your church or email/ telephone the Benefice Office on office@pershoreabbey.org.uk or 01386 552071 to book your place. There is a voluntary £5 contribution for course material.

OLIVER JONES ART EXHIBITION - 20 FEB 2022 - 30 MARCH 2022: This highly anticipated art exhibition launches at Pershore Abbey on 20 February. Oliver Jones works in pastel chalk, a medium commonly associated with intimate portraiture and gentle landscapes, rather than large format works. His works defy expectations: they are large, but also highly charged.

The two works, #motherandchild and Divine have been selected as they present similarities with certain forms of religious art. The pieces address how different forms of communication can contain social messages about who we are and how we relate to each other. In these cases, looking at body image, the impact of social media and self-image/self-worth.

Find out more about the artist via www.olivercjones.com and Meadow Arts here: www.meadowarts.org

ART EXHIBITION VOLUNTEER ORIENTATION TALK: There is a volunteer orientation talk, for all those who have kindly offered to steward the Oliver Jones exhibition on 19 February at 1600.

PUBLIC EVENT - ARTIST TALK BY OLIVER JONES - SATURDAY 5 MARCH 2022, 1500-1630 AT PERSHORE ABBEY - FREE ENTRY: Oliver Jones is known for his large format hyper-realistic pastel chalk drawings. His two works on show at Pershore Abbey consider body image, the impact of social media on representation and self-worth. On Saturday 5 March, join him at the Abbey for a talk about Divine and #motherandchild as well as his wider practice. Book via Eventbrite: <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/255997153377>

CTiP FOODBANK

The Pershore Food Bank volunteers are working extra hard to look after vulnerable families in these difficult times. We are very grateful for all your kind donations but the following items would be extremely helpful this month.

- ♦ Household Cleaning Products
- ♦ Dog Food
- ♦ Sturdy Carrier Bags

Banksy checks donated bags for sturdiness!

AND FINALLY . . .

BISHOP JOHN'S LENT APPEAL: This year Bishop John's Lent Appeal will raise money for our partner Diocese of Morogoro in Tanzania.

The pandemic has meant a particularly difficult time for the Diocese of Morogoro, but in recent months, Bishop Godfrey has created a number of new parishes.

The Diocese is looking to become self-supporting and is hoping to open an education and conference centre which can be hired by others – Baraka House (Blessing House).

Bishop Godfrey said: "The diocese has a remarkable location for business site in Morogoro. All funding to build Baraka House is coming from parishioners with each parish assigned a specific target for an annual contribution. Covid-19, drought and flood have all affected harvests and therefore reduced incomes, but we are not discouraged - God is strengthening our parishioners and clergy to meet this goal.

It is with great gratitude that we receive news of this heart-touching appeal for Lent. The parishes of Morogoro and parishes of Worcester are now holding hands together for the Baraka House project."

Once Lent begins, you will be able to donate to Bishop John's Lent Appeal on the diocesan website.

You can find out more about the Diocese of Morogoro here:
